NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited – expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2024 AND 2023

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

Forte Minerals Corp. (with its subsidiaries, collectively, the "Company" or "Forte") is a mining exploration company focused on copper and gold in Peru. Forte was incorporated under the Company Act (British Columbia) on March 1, 2011. The Company name was changed from Plan B Minerals Corp. to Forte Copper Corp. on April 20, 2018. On April 27, 2021, the Company changed its name to Forte Minerals Corp. The Company maintains its registered office at 2080 – 777 Hornby Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6Z 1S4. The Company's principal place of business is 1005 – 409 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6C 1T2. The Company is listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange ("CSE") under the symbol "CUAU", the OTCQB under the symbol "FOMNF", and the Frankfurt Stock Exchange under the symbol "2OA".

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") on a going concern basis, which contemplates that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company had an accumulated deficit of $5,933,875 as at March 31, 2024 (December 31, 2023 - $5,715,836) and reported a net loss of $218,039 for the three months ended. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to raise funds primarily through the issuance of shares or achieve profitable operations. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted at this time. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing, management may be required to curtail certain expenses. These material uncertainties may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary to the carrying values and classification of assets and liabilities should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

The Company's business financial condition and results of operations may be negatively affected by economic and other consequences from the recent conflict in the Gaza region. The Company has not experienced any direct impact of the war in Gaza to date and expects any direct impacts to the business to be limited. The indirect impacts on the economy and on the mining industry and other industries in general could negatively affect the business and may make it more difficult for it to raise equity or debt financing. There can be no assurance that the Company will not be impacted by adverse consequences that may be brought about on its business, results of operations, financial position, and cash flows in the future.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting. Accordingly, these financial statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by IFRS for complete financial statements for year-end reporting purposes. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023, which have been prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the IASB.

Basis of consolidation and presentation

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments measured at fair value. In addition, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its 100% controlled entities, Forte Cobre S.A.C. (a Peruvian corporation) ("Forte Cobre"), Amaru Resources S.A.C. (a Peruvian corporation) ("Amaru"), and Cordillera Resources Peru S.A.C. (a Peruvian Corporation) ("Cordillera"). The functional currency of the parent company is the Canadian dollar and the Peruvian sol for its subsidiaries.

FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2024 AND 2023

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd...)

Basis of consolidation and presentation (cont'd...)

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Company has exposure to variable returns from its involvement and has the ability to use power over the investee to affect its returns. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Company controls another entity. Subsidiaries are fully condensed consolidated interim from the date on which control is transferred to the Company until the date on which control ceases.

The accounts of subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the parent company, using consistent accounting policies. Inter-company transactions, balances, and unrealized gains or losses on transactions are eliminated upon consolidation.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

The accounting policies, estimates and critical judgments, methods of computation and presentation applied in these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are consistent with those of the most recent annual audited financial statements and are those the Company adopted in its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023. Accordingly, these financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's most recent annual audited consolidated financial statements.

Use of judgments and estimates

The preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments, and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements and the reported expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

In preparing these condensed consolidated interim financial statements, the judgments made by management in applying the Company's accounting policies and key sources of significant estimation uncertainty were the same as those applied to the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023.

New accounting standards

The Company has reviewed new and revised accounting pronouncements that have been issued but are not yet effective, and has determined that these updates are not applicable or consequential to the Company and have been excluded from discussion within these material accounting policies.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE

On August 10, 2020, the Company received four (4) promissory notes ("Promissory Notes"). The Promissory Notes were provided as security against the purchase of 1,000,000 units ("Units") at $0.12 per Unit for a total principal amount of $120,000 and mature on July 10, 2023 ("Maturity Date"). Each unit was comprised of one common share ("Unit Share") and one-half purchase warrant. Each warrant entitled the holder to purchase a further common share at a price of $0.20 per share until August 10, 2023 (extended to August 10, 2024 in the year ended December 31, 2023). The interest on the principal amount was at a rate of 2.00% per annum. The Promissory Notes were secured by the Unit Shares which were held in escrow, to be released proportionate to the principal balance of Promissory Notes repaid. If the Promissory Notes were not repaid in full by July 10, 2023, the remaining securities held in escrow would be cancelled.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE (cont'd...)

The terms of each Promissory Note provided that the debtor ("Payor") agree to pay any accrued interest owing under this Promissory Note to the Company on an annual basis on each anniversary date, commencing on July 10, 2021. The Payor could have elected to pay any accrued interest owing under this promissory note by adding such amount to the principal amount of this Promissory Note. On July 10, 2021 and July 10, 2022, the Payors elected to accrue interest owing to the Promissory Notes.

The Payor had the right, but not the obligation, to repay in increments of no less than $10,000 the principal amount owing under the promissory note as follows:

- (1) After the first anniversary date of the Promissory Note on July 10, 2021, but before the second anniversary date of the Promissory Note on July 10, 2022, the Payor had the right to prepay up to a maximum aggregate amount of $15,000 towards the principal amount owing under the Promissory Note. This right expired during the year ended December 31, 2022.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial instruments

Cash, accounts receivable, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at amortized cost. The Company considers that the carrying amount of these financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost to approximate their fair value.

Financial risk factors

Credit risk

The Company's primary exposure to credit risk is the risk of illiquidity of cash and accounts receivable, excluding GST receivables of $10,231 (December 31, 2023 - $6,206), amounting to $184,971 at March 31, 2024 (December 31, 2023-$177,172). As the Company's policy is to limit cash holdings to instruments issued by major Canadian and Peruvian banks, the credit risk is considered by management to be negligible. The Company considers the credit risk with respect to these amounts to be low.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to pay financial instrument liabilities as they come due. As at March 31, 2024, the Company had a working capital deficit of $60,473 (December 31, 2023 – $213,884 working capital). Financial risk factors (cont'd...)

Interest rate risk

The Company's financial asset exposed to interest rate risk consists of cash. Management believes the risk of further increases in interest rates is considered low after the significant interest rate escalation observed during the period. Foreign currency risk

The Company has engaged a number of vendors in the pursuit of mineral exploration activities in Peru. As such, the Company is exposed to some foreign currency risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar, United States dollar and the Peruvian sol may have an adverse effect on the Company's business and costs to proceed with preferred vendors. The Company does not enter into any foreign exchange hedging contracts. Cash held in the Peruvian entities is generally held in US dollars and converted to soles as required. As at March 31, 2024, the Company held foreign cash of US$1,245 and S/51,846. A 10% movement in foreign exchange rates would have impacted the net loss by approximately $2,059.
